

music submissions

- Please only submit original songs and instrumentals. Original compositions must be owned and controlled by you (or your publishing company).
- Only music that is sample-free or where samples are paid for outright can be considered for licensing.
- Any collaborations with co-writers, producers, performers, musicians, bands requires an agreement (eg: deal memo) between all participating and deserving parties with the signing content provider(s).
- Broadcast quality sound is a must.
- If your track contains profanities it must be disclosed.
- Include the song titles with your CD on the CD case and include contact information on your self.

Thank you for considering Q Music Collective.
